

First Friday Fest

Friday, February 6, 2009 - From 5 pm until 8 pm

“Historic Downtown Milton”

An evening of Art, Entertainment, Shopping and Culinary Experience's!

During First Friday Fest businesses, shops and restaurants open late for an exciting evening in "Historic Downtown Milton, FL". Events will include Classic cars, motorcycles, local musicians and artists located at various businesses and along the sidewalks.

SHOP....Come unwind in beautiful stores like Southern Ladies for those uncommon gifts or for that perfect home accent visit Shabby Schex . See the historic Old Post Office and shop for antiques on Caroline St. Walk on over to Escambia Street for a showcase of talented juried art work at the Dragon Fly Art Gallery.

DINE....“Ready to Relax”, the Liberty Café on Willing St. is open with new menu items. Enjoy the soft rock and country sounds of Jordan Pace and Adam Wagler. Or try the long awaited Blackwater Bistro serving food with history on Elmira Street with Cliff Krut on acoustic guitar for a treat of blues and soul music.

STROLL...Take a stroll along the beautiful Blackwater River on the Riverwalk which extends three blocks in the downtown area. While on the Riverwalk pay tribute to the Santa Rosa County Veterans Memorial Plaza, see the new monument depicting the battle of Iwo Jima.
